Unveiling of a Monument.

The handsome monument erected on the Crater farm by the State of Massachusetts in memory of the soldiers and saliors of that State killed in Virginia in 1861-'65, will be unveiled on November 13. The vell will be drawn by a granddaughter of General William Mahone.

The Battlefield Commission has requested General Stith Bolling, commander of the Virginia Division of United Confederate Veterans, to act as chief marshal of the parade and ceremonies of the day, but the general's health is such that he may not be able to accept the position. The State of Massachusetts has designated thirty of its citizens to officially represent it at the unveiling. This party will leave Boston on Thursday, November 9, arrive in Norfolk on Saturday, the 11th, will spend Sunday and Monday in Petersburg and Tuesday in Richmond. From Richmond the party goes to Gettysburg to unveil a monument there. President Taft will be invited to attend the unveiling here, and many Bay State veterans will come to it.
